FACULTY

TO A MAN OF EDUCATION

We, the class of "1960," dedicate our yearbook to you, MR. LAWRENCE MUCCI, because you believe that knowledge is the key to the future. Although you teach only senior and junior subjects, the complete science and mathematics department is under your direction. You had stimulated these courses long before Sputnik and the Russian threat was publicized. It is your belief that we should learn things to the "Nth" degree. You have instilled within us the initiative, ambition, and desire that is so essential to attain success. For this we express our sincere gratitude.

OUR THANKS TO YOU . . .

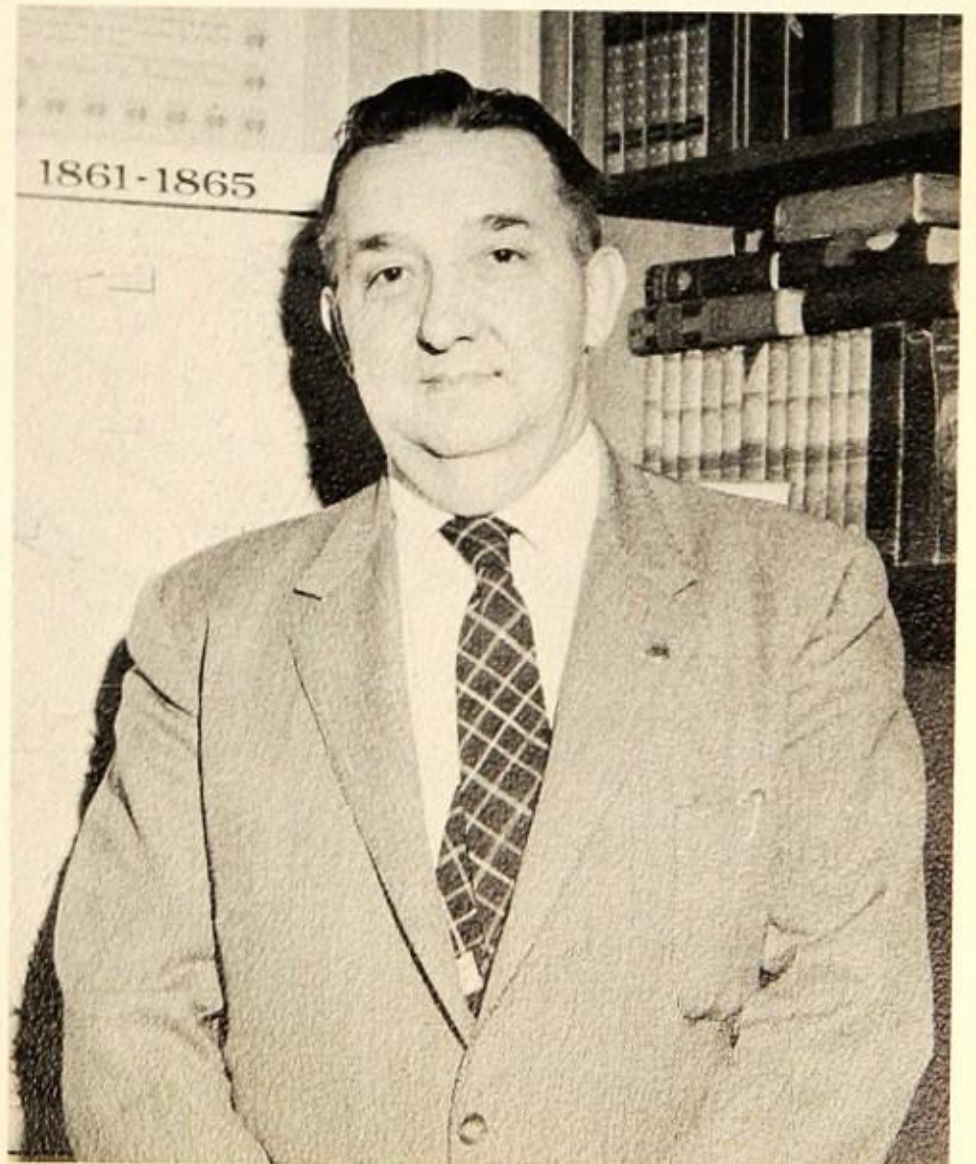

MR. ROBERT DeBISHOP

In no way can we as seniors give the thanks which are due to our class advisor. You have been with us for these last two years. During that time you have put much of your time and energy into helping us. This includes our shows, proms, dances, and our treasury. Whenever we had to do something you were always there, most of the time before we were. We will take this opportunity to tell you how much we appreciate it and to say, "Thank you very much, we will never forget it."

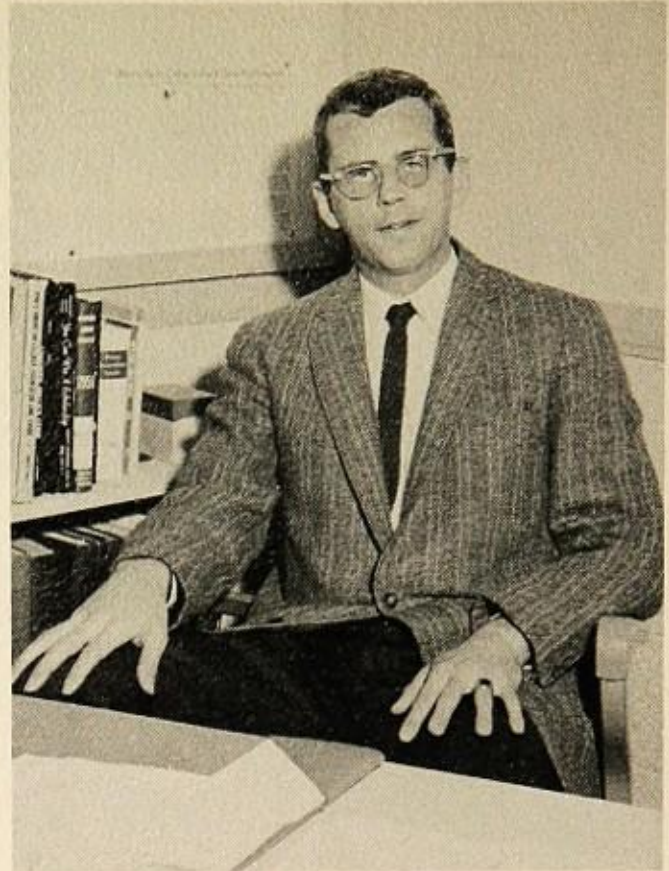

MR. RAYMOND JOYAL

Without the guidance and concern of you, Mr. Raymond Joyal, both as our yearbook advisor and as a teacher, we could not have enjoyed the success which we have had. This yearbook is a result of your ever existing patience, time, and perseverance. You have helped the staff of the yearbook tremendously, and we are very grateful for it.

ADMINISTRATION

The present administration and secretarial staff at Southington High School are relatively new. Our principal and assistant principal, Mr. D'Angelo and Mr. Gasecki, have been in their present positions for only two years, and they have executed their offices exceptionally well to be most beneficial to the school. Our guidance officer, Mr. Walsh, was new this school year and has done excellent work with the students, especially with the seniors. All three of the secretaries were also new to their positions. Nevertheless, even though the administration and staff were relatively new, our school is enjoying conditions which were unthought of a few years ago. We have certainly progressed.

COMMENCEMENT

Tonight marks a milestone in my life,
The beckoning of new horizons, both far and near.
As I recall these last few years,
Many things come into view.

I've liked the school which has been mine,
All the friends both old and new,
The knowledge acquired throughout the years,
Also, experiences both pleasant and memorable.

I look to the future with an inquiring mind.
Do I have the courage to face the world?
These thoughts and more race through my mind,
On this my Graduation Night.

FRESHMEN 1956-1957

We started off as high school students by being initiated by the Seniors. Who could ever forget the crazy antics we had to perform! Our first election for class officers was held early in the year, with Robert Garry as President, Philip Gregoretti as Vice-President, Patricia Porriello as Secretary, and Herbert Varley as Treasurer. Our class advisor was Mr. Terek. We were young, inexperienced, and new to the school, but we soon fell into the groove of activities. The first time we participated in the school's annual Magazine Drive we came in third. We were well represented at the Senior Valentine Dance by our pages, Anne Goggin and Herbert Varley. But, all too soon our year of no worries, fun, and leisure was ended.

SOPHOMORES, 1957-1958

The class of "60," now Sophomores, was excited to get back to school. This was the year our activities started. Our well-chosen officers for that year were: President, Robert Garry, Vice-President, Robert Cusano, Secretary, Anne Goggin, and Treasurer, Mary Lou Fiorillo. Mr. DeFabo was our class advisor. We started the year with a dance entitled the "Sweater Hop," which proved to be successful and enjoyable. The Magazine Drive was once again under way, and we came in fourth this time. Our pages for the Valentine Dance were Patricia Porriello and Fran Kenefick.

Our biggest project of the year was the annual Sophomore Review. This was usually a talent show, but the Class of "60," showing its first signs of non-conformity, decided to put on an operetta. It was called "Carmelita," with Lucille Verderame and Philip Gregoretti as co-chairmen, and was under the capable and excellent direction of Mr. DeFabo.

At the end of the show the entire cast gathered for a wonderful medley of all the songs in the show.

The cast of the Junior Show gather for final bow.

This show turned out to be one of the most outstanding, most successful and most enjoyable performances in the school's history. It will always be remembered for its gorgeous scenery, costumes, and enchanting music. Who will ever forget "Viva, Viva, Viva . . . it is Fiesta time!" It was really a fabulous show. Our Sophomore year soon came to an end, but the memories of that carefree year will linger on.

JUNIORS 1958-1959

As Juniors we were considered upperclassmen, it was a long struggle, but we were there and we made the most of it. Officers for our Junior year were: Robert Garry—President, Robert Cusano—Vice President, Lucille Verderame—Secretary, and Mary Lou Fiorillo—Treasurer. Mr. DeBishop was our class advisor and helped us very much through the year. The Junior girls chosen as cheerleaders did a peppy job of cheering the boys on to victory. Candy sales began early in the year, with several Juniors helping to sell candy during their lunch period. In early fall we sponsored a dance called the "Half and Half" which was part square dancing and part social dancing. This proved to be successful from the turnout and it also aided our treasury.

On December 6, 1958, one of the most important events of our Junior year arrived. This was our Junior Prom entitled "Enchanted Island," with Sheila Sawyer and David Ballou as co-chairmen. These able students and the various committees worked hard to make this prom the best ever—with the wonderful results. Approximately 80 couples attended, all enjoying the music and admiring the beautiful decorations, set in a misty, fairyland theme. The King and Queen chosen for the prom were Philip Gregoretti and Toni Giammatteo.

Harem dancers of Egypt.

In early winter rehearsals began for our Junior show. Still non-conformists, the Junior class decided to have a show other than the usual minstrel. Putting our heads together, we decided upon a show called "Around the World in 8 Acts," with Paula Guerin and Robert Henderson as co-chairmen, and directed by Mr. DeBishop. Eight different countries were represented by a short skit or act. The countries were England, Sweden, Italy, France, Russia, Japan, Egypt, and the United States. Remember the Can-Can girls who were always (?) in step? And what about John, the Bermuda-clad bartender and the "small" bottle of beer? This show certainly gave us memories never to be forgotten.

All of these events gave us pleasure and happiness, yet we had serious thoughts too. A class ring committee was chosen, and a few months later our rings were purchased. We kept up our studies, trying ever so hard to make the Honor Roll. Several of the honor students were rewarded for their work and studies by being initiated into the National Honor Society. This was an important and honorable event for the 23 students selected. Our pages to the Valentine Dance that year were Gail Ross and Ralph Peterutti. The annual Magazine Drive found us in 3rd place. The Junior Recital was held in the Spring. Those who won this speaking prize were: first, David Ballou; second, Paula Guerin; and third, Robert Carbone. At the end of our Junior year Ronald Borgio and Doreen DiMartino were selected as co-editors of the Chronicle. Girls' and Boys' State participants were also selected. They were Lee Berg, Paula Guerin, David Ballou, and Richard Ralston. Before we realized it summer was near, and our exciting Junior year was coming to a close. But we eagerly anticipated the following year—our Senior year.

SENIORS 1959-1960

Our Senior year, the year we all looked forward to, finally arrived. We were THE upperclassmen, but with many responsibilities. Class Officers for this year were President—Mary Lou Fiorillo, Vice-President—Robert Cusano, Secretary—Lucille Verderame, and Treasurer—Paula Guerin. Once again, we had Mr. DeBishop as our advisor.

Our round of numerous activities began as soon as we got back to school. Our non-conforming class held a "Welcome Dance" in early September, rather than the annual initiation dance usually held. Many students attended this dance and had loads of fun. The Senior girls on the cheerleading squad were Lee Berg, Mary Ann Cibula, Toni Giammatteo, Gail Ross and Nathalie Serafino. Our class was well represented in the various athletic teams. Our Senior class, along with the Music Club, sponsored the "Homecoming Dance," held at the end of Homecoming Week in October. At this dance the Homecoming Queen was announced: she was Valerie Stetson, a Junior. The Senior candidates for Homecoming Queen were Sharon Brady, Mary Ellen Cupina, Marion Mirisola, Patricia Porriello, Gail Ross, and Lucille Verderame.

Soon casting began for the Senior Play, "No Boys Allowed." Rehearsals were held after school for weeks, but all the practice proved worthwhile. The show, performed November 20, and 21, was a tremendous success. The fabulous Class of '60 did it again! Another successful production was added to their collection.

The girls insist, "No Boys Allowed!"

Victrola exclaims, "I's quittin', and that's a fact!"

D. Hayes and R. Petteruti find it a tight squeeze.

The girls give Officer O'Brien a hard time.

It was a wonderful year filled with homework and activities. Many seniors participated in the various clubs and sports at S.H.S. and the CHRONICLE committees were working feverishly. The annual D.A.R. award was presented to Lucille Verderame, an outstanding and well deserving senior. The next school event of the seniors was the Christmas Ball. None of us will forget the fun and excitement of that night.

The seniors had a serious side, too. Many were applying to college or seeking positions after graduation. We are all looking forward to the years of the future.

As seniors we had three more social events and graduation to put on before we left Southington High for good. The Valentine Dance was gay and lively, as was the atmosphere of the Senior Prom. And to top it off we had class night and the long awaited graduation.

We've had a wonderful four years at Southington High School and the memories of our school will linger forever.

Mr. Midnight strikes again!

A Tour Through OUR SCHOOL

We begin our day.

The morning exercise is one of the most serious times during school hours.

Notice how the seniors observe the "UP" stair sign.

Behind a model of a Shakespearean theater E. Sankowski, P. Duffy, J. Devoe, F. Krafcik, F. Grablowski and R. Ploszay laugh at a line in "MacBeth."

G. Chickowski, S. Fowler, R. Cusano, and R. Lavorgna participate in a panel discussion in a general English class.

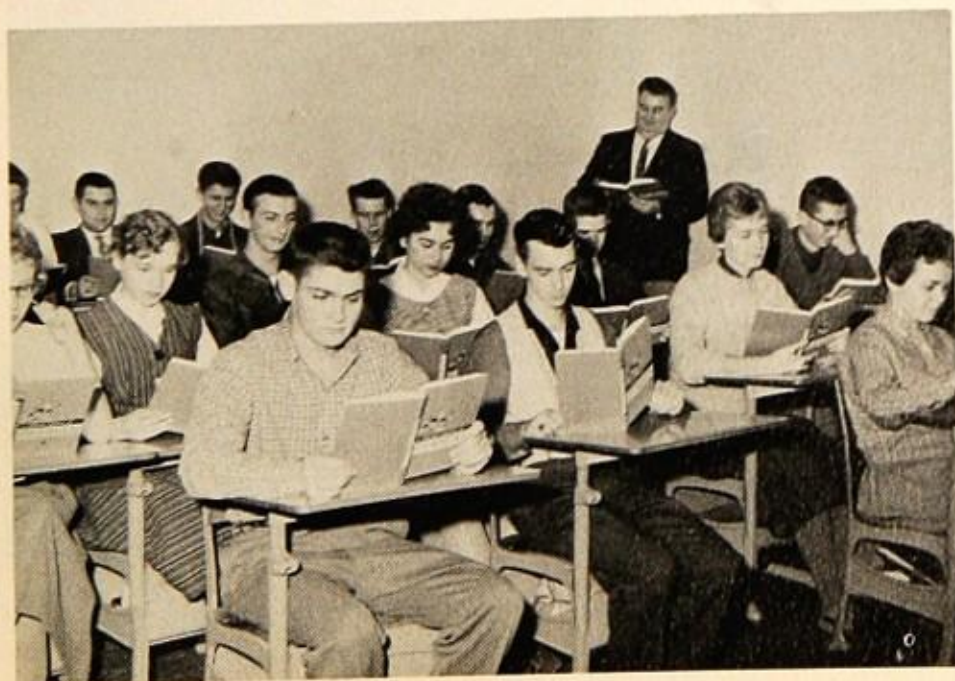

Avis Churchill, head of the English department, is in charge of the English division at S.H.S.

John Carbone explains the meaning of the Spanish bulletin board to a German student, Lynn Barth.

Mary Barry is head of the Language department. French, German and Latin are now taught at S.H.S.

Mr. Bernadt gives one of his German II class a vocabulary lesson.

You can tell that this is the French class. Notice the model of the Eiffel Tower on the front desk.

Anna Fontana, B.S., head of the business department.

Miss Palmer, a student teacher, dictates to the senior girls in shorthand II.

Typing I students face an important timing with confidence.

The hot lunches are prepared by an excellent staff.

S. Ryan, J. Furrow, M. Fournier, P. Porriello, C. Wallace, W. Zantow and R. Seitz observe one of the machines in the business department.

After lunch the students are allowed to go into the gym for a few minutes of dancing.

Mrs. McNerney and Mrs. Hallet show homemaking students how to mix and cut a cake.

Ann Porriello shows how to put water into an automatic coffee pot.

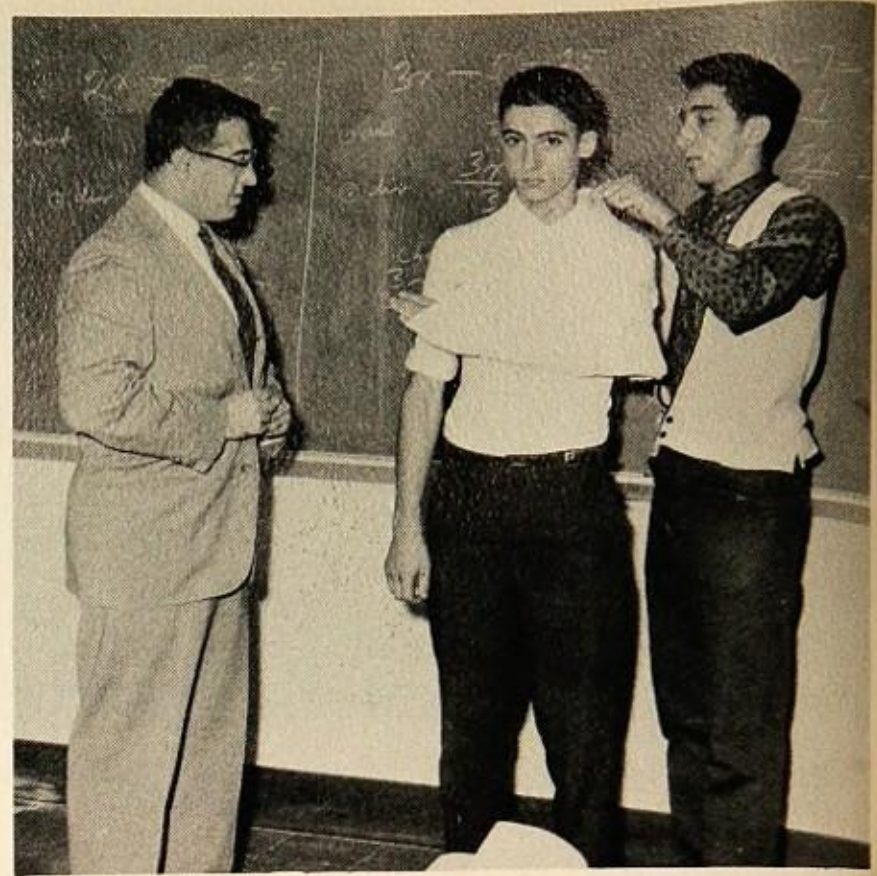

1. Cupina operates electric sewing machine while others wait their turn.

Even the boys decorate in the home and family living room.

U. Andelin operates a lathe in the metal shop.

It's "Doc" Mitchell to the rescue.

In industrial arts the boys learn to work on their own initiative. Here J. DeAngelo makes a cedar desk.

Painting is an enjoyable as well as educational class says L. Berg (left) G. Ross and G. Aust.

The students who have the arts and crafts class place their articles on display in the show case.

David Ballou, student conductor, takes over the orchestra during 5th period.

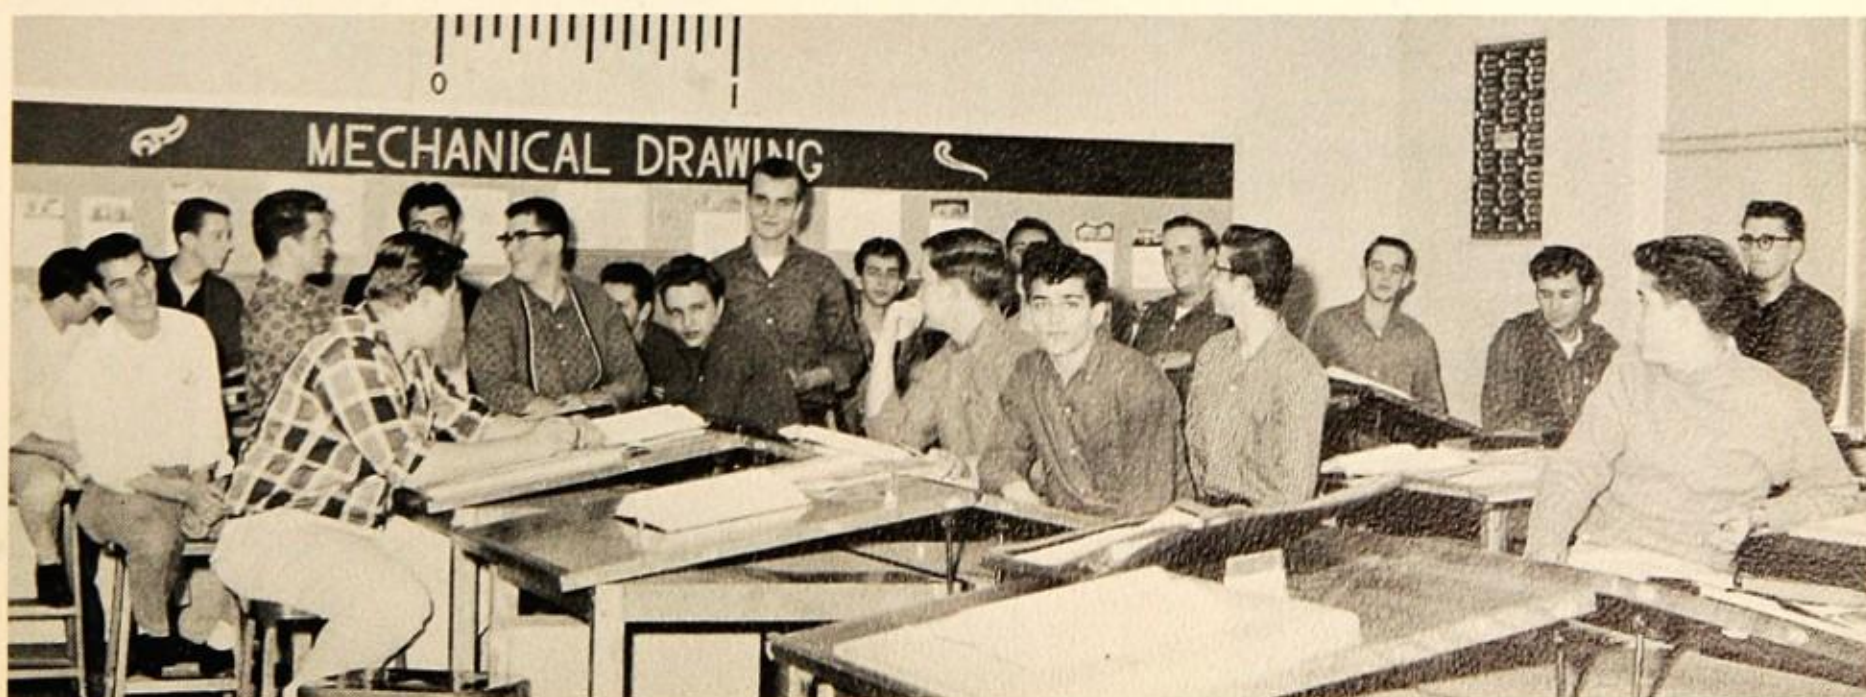

J. Bell and M. Della Vecchia find their make believe broken arm very funny.

One of the many gym classes at S.H.S.

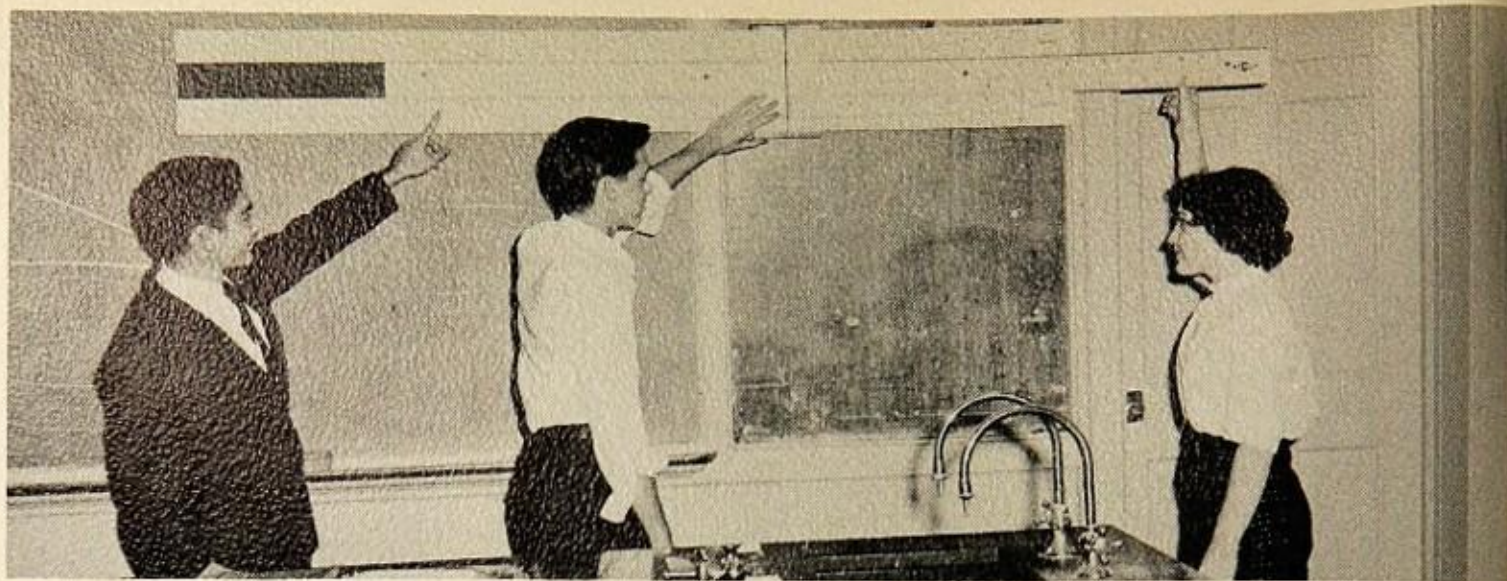

These boys are the professionals of the arts and crafts class.

There seems to be an attraction at the rear of the period 6 mechanical drawing class. The teacher must be out of the room.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is a national organization which is promoted in each school.

Membership is based on four outstanding qualities of the student: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. Scholarship is a mandatory qualification, for the student must have a subject average of 85 or better to be eligible for membership. Students are further qualified if they excel in Leadership, Character, and Service, as estimated by fellow students and faculty members. Those students elected are then informed at an assembly which is followed by a solemn, impressive, induction ceremony in which the students take the National Honor Society oath and receive pins.

This year the club members were kept busy. They sold bookcovers, and ushered at various school Progress Nights.

The officers of the club this year are: President, Ronald Borgio; Vice-President, Philip Gregoretti; Secretary, Marion Mirisola; Treasurer, Robert Henderson; Advisor, Mrs. Avis Churchill.
